KAZAROSIAN LAW OFFICES

In 2006, Massachusetts Super Lawyers® magazine chose Marsha V. Kazarosian for its cover story titled "The Power of Marsha Kazarosian." In 2007 she was listed in New England Super Lawyers magazine, placing her among the legal elite in six states: Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine, Connecticut and Rhode Island. Named by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly as one of the Commonwealth's Top 10 lawyers, Kazarosian leads a firm of highly accomplished, expertly skilled associates who collectively provide the crème de la crème of representation in highly specialized areas of practice. Founded by Paul Kazarosian, the Firm has commanded excellence in litigation for more than 50 years—Kazarosian and her associates Janet E. Dutcher, Linda M. Little (a former CPA), and recent New England School of Law graduate Taylore L. Jarvis, continue his legacy.

PRACTICE AREAS

Dutcher and Kazarosian have established a reputation for successfully representing clients embroiled in high-income, high-asset divorces and custody litigation throughout Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Assisted by Attorney Little, the team expertly uncovers relevant and oft-hidden financial data that ensures their success. In addition, the unique skills and experience of each attorney assures results in major Motor Vehicle Accidents/Personal Injury, Discrimination, and Criminal Defense litigation.

KAZAROSIAN LAW OFFICES PROVIDES A DREAM-TEAM APPROACH TO LITIGATION: A PROVEN FORMULA FOR SUCCESS.

PRECEDENT-SETTING VERDICTS AND SETTLEMENTS

Kazarosian and Dutcher received national acclaim in high-profile, precedent-setting cases such as the Pamela Smart murder case, and the multimillion-dollar gender discrimination suit against the Haverhill Golf and Country Club—the first of its kind in the nation. Since then, they continue to secure unparalleled results in Discrimination and Personal Injury/Motor Vehicle cases.

LEGAL TRADITION

Kazarosian and her associates take an exhaustive approach to litigation. Although the Firm is selective in the cases it accepts, once accepted, the attorneys are committed to the painstaking process of trial preparation that ensures that they are never unprepared—the key to their success in winning "impossible" cases.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Former President of the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys and Essex County Bar Association, Kazarosian sits on the Massachusetts Bar Association's Executive Management Board, Joint Bar Committee, and Family Law Section Council. She teaches continuing legal education to attorneys statewide and nationally and has authored several articles/treatises on discrimination and trial practice.

MEDIA

A respected legal commentator and oft-sought public speaker, Kazarosian frequently shares her expertise. In addition to being quoted in Sports Illustrated, The New York Times, The Boston Globe, Golf Digest, Golf World and Golf for Women, she has appeared on HBO's Real Sports With Bryant Gumbel, CNN's Paula Zahn Now, Court TV's Catherine Crier Live, People are Talking With Tom Bergeron, and others. She currently hosts a radio program on The Legal Talk Network called The Power Of Attorney With Marsha Kazarosian.
